

Padma Bhushan Award 2010

Datatex congratulates Mr. S.P. Oswal for this prestigious achievement. We are proud to have Vardhman as a customer and user of our ERP systems.

January 25, 2010

Mr S. P. Oswal, Chairman and Managing Director of the Vardhman Group of Industries, has been nominated for the Padma Bhushan award for the year 2010.

The Padma Bhushan award is an Indian civilian decoration established by the President of India (1954). It is awarded to recognize distinguished service of a high order to the nation, in any field. Since 1954, 1111 people have earned this award.

The awards are announced every year and given to the individuals who excel in the field of art, medicine, literature & education, trade and industry, sports, public affairs, civil service, journalism, science and engineering and social work.

Mr Oswal will receive the prestigious national award — Padam Bhushan — in the trade and industry category on the occasion of the indian Republic Day.

The Vardhman Group, one of the datatex most important customers, established in 1962, has today blossomed into one of the largest textile business houses in India. It has the largest yarn manufacturing capacity in the country with over 800,000 spindles. The group achieved a turnover of around 700 Million $US in 2008-09 and employs around 23,000 persons at its various plants, offices and branches.

 Padma Bhushan Award Information
Type	civilian
Category	national
Instituted	1954
First Awarded	1954
Last Awarded	2010
Total Awarded	1111
Awarded by	Government of India

The Vardhman Group is the largest producer and exporter of yarns in India and has sizeable sales of gray and processed fabrics. The group has strong presence in evolved markets like USA, the EU and Japan. Group production activities are spread over 21 plants located throughout India with a supporting marketing and logistics network across the nation. With a workforce of over 23,000, large production capacities and a strong international presence, the Vardhman Group is a leading global player in the textile sector.

Datatex is the world's leading supplier of IT software solutions to the global textile and apparel industry with the largest installed base of customers in 42 countries and 5 continents.